READING LISTS TO AVOID.
Any list with UNapproved Authors.

UNAPPROVED AUTHORS: Most Reading Lists publish titles first and the authors second. Most List editors are influenced by book popularity, pop culture awards; and The UNapproved Authors can creep in over time. Some examples are: Most government lists: Federal, State and Local Education Lists including Public Library (ALA) lists - all should be secondary to your list of Approved Authors. Two examples of creep are: 1.) Sunshine State Young Readers Award (FL). <http://myssyra.org/> 2.) CLASSIC READER BOOKS <http://kidsreads.com>
